CLUB V. WILTS.

McPhail went back in place of Lawrence, Moore dropping to left half while McTavish took the inside left forward position, the rest of the team were as advertised.

The Club started, facing the sun, at 4.15 p.m., with only ten men, and went away towards the Wilts' goal, but the ball went to touch. From the throw in, Wilts took the ball down where Day fouled Lucas. From the free kick, Amor went away, but sent in wide. Sandberg received from the goalkick and went through, beating the defence, but he hesitated when only six yards out and Moore (Wilts) cleared. Menham sent across to Amor who raced away on the left. Gerrard kicking out, Rodgers beat Lancaster in midfield and passed forward to Sandberg, who sent out to Riis, the latter, meeting the ball, sent across the goal mouth when Sandberg missed the ball and lost an easy chance of giving the Club the lead. The Club should have been two goals up in the first ten minutes play. Moore (Wilts) passed to Amor who went away on the left, but Gerrard relieved. Rodgers sent forward to Sandberg, who passed out to Riis, the latter failing to reach the ball which rolled into touch. From the throw in, Wilts sent across, but McPhail cleared and Sandberg went in, Moore (Wilts) mistiming the ball, but Lancaster ran back and cleared. McTavish now came on and completed his side who up to now had had most of the play. Amor went away on the left, but his centre went behind. The Club returned where offside against Riis cleared. The Club came again, and Sandberg sent out to the left where Riis was standing offside, this player not noticing that L. Moore was playing well forward. The Club came again, McTavish sent forward to Riis, who returned sharply to the centre, where Sandberg received and, beating Murrant, sent the ball into the net, past Green, thereby giving the Club the lead after twenty minutes' play. The Wilts, stung by this reverse, went away from the centre kick, but J. Rodger cleared, where Raiton sent out to Goldenberg, who failed to receive the pass and the ball went to touch. From the throw in, Raiton sent forward to Day who, favourably placed, missed an easy chance of scoring and Moore (Wilts) cleared. The Club came again, and Moore cleared with a hefty kick, the ball dropping on Menham's head this player being offside. The Club returned and Moore (Wilts) kicked behind. The corner was well taken by Goldenberg, the ball dropping on Sandberg's head and going out to Riis who returned to centre. Murrant clearing.

The Wilts, visited the Club end where McPhail cleared with a huge kick, and Sandberg, receiving went in, but sent in wide when nicely placed.

The Club came again, and McTavish sent forward to Sandberg, who was offside. The Wilts, then went away and Lucas passed forward to Menham, but J. Rodger received and passed forward to Day, who was standing offside. The Wilts were now playing the one back game, which kept the Club forwards from getting dangerous. The Club returned, and Sandberg sent across to Goldenberg, who returned to Day, the latter sending in wide. The Club kept up the pressure and kept the Wilts, at home for a few minutes, but offside, through the one back game, spoilt the play, the Club forwards being continually pulled up for offside.

The Wilts, attacked and were awarded a free kick for hands near the penalty area. Lancaster took the kick, but J. Rodger cleared and Sandberg receiving got away and beating Murrant, sent straight to Green, who caught and threw out just as Sandberg sent the goalie into the net. The Wilts, then visited the other end and McPhail handled. Farmer kicked well forward, but hands against Swanborough relieved. Wilts came again and Menham, who was closely watched by Raiton, sent out to Amor who centred and Swanborough trapped the ball, but waited before attempting to shoot and McPhail running up cleared by kicking behind.

Evans placed the corner kick well in, but J. Rodger cleared and passed forward to Sandberg, who sent across to Goldenberg, the latter being offside. The Club came again, but McTavish was given offside.

The Wilts, now visited the Club goal and Menham did some pretty work, but he passed too far forward when nearing goal, and Rodgers ran out and cleared.

Amor came again on the left, but his centre went behind. The Wilts, winger, however, would not be denied, but came again and sent in hard to Rodger, who caught the ball and threw out to Raiton, who sent his forwards away, but offside against Day relieved and the Wilts returned where Amor sent across, but Evans was offside. The Club came again and Sandberg sent across to Goldenberg, who was offside. The whistle sounded for half time with the Wilts well in, and the Club leading by one goal to nil.

The Wilts, restarted and went straight for the Club goal where G. Rodger was called upon to clear, the goalie throwing away. The Wilts, returned on the right and McPhail and Rodger collided, their heads meeting, and while consulting with one another the Wilts sent across from the right, and J. Rodger kicked behind. From now onwards McPhail went off his game. Evans took the corner kick the ball dodging about the goal mouth until coming to the foot of Swanborough. This player beat Rodger with a shot into the corner of the net. From the centre kick, Wilts, again got well in, but Menham shot wide. The Wilts, tried hard to get the lead and pressed for a time, but hands against Menham relieved.

The Club went away and Moore (Club) sent in wide. The Club returned and Sandberg was given offside. Wilts, away and Lucas passed forward to Amor, whose centre went behind. The Club came away and Goldenberg received and passed to Day, the latter was offside. Riis came again and beating Murrant delayed his final effort, and Moore (Wilts) running across cleared.

The Club returned and Sandberg hesitated in front of goal and was robbed by Moore, who took the ball well down the field and passed forward to Menham, who headed into Rodger's hands. From the throw out K. Rodger sent McTavish away this player had an excellent chance of giving the Club the lead, but waited for Moore to charge him off the ball and kicking out. As the result of the charge McTavish was stretched out and had to be carried off the field. Wilts, went away and Dauncester passed out to Evans who centred. Raiton clearing and the ball going out to Swanborough this player sent in a hard low shot which brought Rodger to his knees. The goalie cleared with difficulty, and Menham returned forcing a corner. The kick was well taken and Menham sent in a header that beat Rodger, but hit the crossbar and rebounded into play, where Raiton cleared and Sandberg tried a solo effort, but was robbed by Moore when well in.

Foul against the Club sent the Wilts, well in, but Raiton, running back, cleared the ball going out to Lucas, who passed forward to Evans, but offside relieved. McTavish returned, Goldenberg receiving went away on the right and centred well in where McTavish signalled his return by missing an open goal. The Club came again and Goldenberg sent in a ground shot which Green picked up and threw out to Lancaster, who sent Evans away, but McPhail kicked out. From the throw in, Amor sent across to Lancaster, who sent in a first timer which McPhail sent behind. The corner kick was well taken, the ball coming to the head of Swanborough, who headed passed Rodger giving the Wilts, the lead. With only ten minutes play remaining, the Club tried hard to bring the scores level and followed in midfield play. Sandberg sent Goldenberg away, the latter sending behind. Hands against the Club relieved temporarily, but Riis came again on the left where Farmer kicked out. From the throw in the Club sent behind. J. Rodger received from the goal kick and sent Riis away on the wing, but his centre went behind. Wilts, returned and Rodgers ran out to clear, but was beaten and Raiton went in just in time to beat Menham, who was well in. The Wilts, centre forward appealed for a penalty as Raiton appeared to punch the ball down before clearing, but the Referee took no notice of the appeal as he was well up with the ball at all times. Wilts, however, came again and Gerrard mis-kicked, the ball going out to Amor, who sent in hard to Rodger, who made a very weak clearance, the ball going to Raiton, who cleared and sent forward to Riis, who went away on the left, but Murrant tackled and kicked out. Wilts, paid a lying visit to the other end, and Menham sent in straight to Rodger, who threw out, and Sandberg receiving went away and passed out to Goldenberg, but Murrant crossing over, kicked out. Club came again on the left and Riis seeing McTavish nicely placed gave him the ball, but the latter hesitated before shooting, and Moore (Wilts) cleared. Hands against Moore (Club) sent the Wilts, well in where McPhail cleared, and sent Riis away, the latter passing to McTavish, who sent straight at Green, the latter throwing out to Murrant, who kicked out. The whistle sounded shortly afterwards with the ball in mid-field leaving the Wilshires winners by the odd goal in three.

The game was fast and clean throughout, the hardest knock being between the two Club players McPhail and J. Rodger near the Club goal which seemed to daze both players. The Wilshires deserved their win on the play, although the Club missed some very easy chances of adding to their score.

For the Club, Rodger in goal was not so good as in previous matches although the two goals against him were from close in with several players around him as the result of corner kicks. His clearances were not so good as before.

Lawrence's absence weakened the defence and caused a reshuffling of the team. McTavish played an excellent game in the first half, but following his collision with Rodger early in the second half his play fell off and the play was transferred over to his wing where the Wilts, men played a great game. Gerrard cleared well, but in the second half had little to do.

Raiton and J. Rodger, worked hard to keep the forwards out, and dropped back on several occasions to assist the backs when hard pressed. Moore played well, as left half.

The forward line did not combine as usual and the inside men failed to take advantage of the many chances offered. They hesitated when in front of goal, the defence clearing.

The wing men did good work in shooting and in centring. The one back game seemed to break up the attack, for the forwards would not watch what the Wilts, backs were doing. For the Wilts, every man played well. Green was safe in goal. Moore played a great game, his speed serving him well. He was called upon several times to assist his partner while his forward play broke up the attack many a time. Murrant cleared well, but after the Wilts took the lead he indulged in cup tie play by kicking out when the Club forwards got down. Lancaster was the pick of the half back line and kept Sandberg well covered. Lucas worked hard on the left.

Menham in the centre forward position, led his wings well. He was closely watched by J. Rodger and Raiton, and could therefore not run through on his own. Amor on the left had most work in the first half. He sent across some good centres and shot with accuracy. Evans and Swanborough played well on the right, and the two goals by the latter would have beaten any goal keeper.

Mr. Jones was in charge of the game. R.G.A. v. "AMBROSE."

Sargeant made a reappearance in the Navy team after a month's absence. The game was fairly even throughout, but the Ambrose were unfortunate in losing a man turned off the field for repeated fouls.

R.G.A. started and midfield play followed, the defence on both sides being very sound. Watson went away for the R.G.A., and when well in, Best, who crossed to take the kick, was given offside. R.G.A. came again and the Ambrose goalie caught the ball and instead of throwing out attempted to dodge. The attack still holding the ball and the Referee awarded the soldiers a free kick for the goalkeeper carrying. Dawson took the kick and passing to Best, the latter put the ball into the net, giving the R.G.A. the lead after fifteen minutes play. Sargeant broke up many a rush and sent his forwards away, but the R.G.A. defence was too good and the teams crossed over with the R.G.A. leading one goal to nil.

The Ambrose restarted, but R.G.A. received and by good combination Watson got well down and sent in hard bringing the goalie down in clearing. The R.G.A. returned, but the forwards lacking cohesion the Ambrose cleared and Savage went away on the right and centred where Mills badly fouled Frampton and received a caution from the Referee. The R.G.A. pressed for a time and shots were sent in from all angles, the ball hitting both uprights and the cross-bar, but would not go into the net. Keay sent across a good centre from the left where Best sent over the top from close range. Savage got going on the right and sent across, but the left wing failed to meet the ball, and thereby missed an easy chance to bring the scores level. Miles again fouled Frampton and was ordered off the field, the Ambrose finishing with ten men, with the R.G.A. winners by the only goal scored.

It was hard luck for the Ambrose to lose the match through a goal being scored, owing to the goalkeeper carrying. Sargeant worked hard, while Savage did some good work on the wing. The R.G.A. defence was very sound, but the attack lacked the understanding necessary to score goals.

Mr. Hollands was Referee.

POLICE v. KOWLOON.

The Police sprang a surprise on the Kowloon men whom they defeated by three goals to one. Alexander scored early for the Police, Watts repeating later. The Kowloon men tried hard to reduce the lead, but the wing men got too far down before centring and good work ended up by the ball being sent behind. The Police added to their score through Carrell and the Kowloon team scoring once, the game ended with the Police winners as mentioned above.

Mr. Wells was in charge of the game. The game was well contested throughout and the Police deserved their win. Their forwards showed better combination while Clarke played a great game at back. Kowloon must not put their defeat down to a lack of understanding between their players generally.

"TAMAR" v. S.C.A.

Before a large Chinese crowd this match was played on the Navy Ground. The Tamar team included Graydon and Radford, who were not expected to turn out, but owing to the delay in the sailing of the vessel, they were available to assist the Tamar in practically the hardest game in the league. The brilliant career forward concluded his football career in Hongkong by scoring the two goals for his side. The game was fast and clean throughout. Stone was fouled by the penalty area and Graydon, taking a kick, gave the Tamar the lead. The Chinese went away and Au Kir Sang was on the point of scoring when he was pulled up for offside. The Chinese crowd resented the Referee's decision and a portion of them encroached on the field of play, but were soon sent back over the line. The Tamar scored again from a free kick for hands near the penalty area, and Graydon again sent into the net. The S.C.A. tried hard to equalise and Radford was called upon many a time to clear his charge while Castle and Grant tackled well. Stone and Keay did good work on the wings and Cross sent in several shots. Time arrived with the Tamar winners by two goals to nil.

CLUB RESERVES v. UNITED.

The Club kicked off facing the sun and forced a couple of corners. The United clearing and going away to the other end forced a corner. Groot, in attempting to save, almost let the ball fall into the net. The Club returned and Boysen sent behind. The Club came again and May sent over the top. United got away and Laing sent well forward where Groot was called upon to fist out. Sherry went away, but his final effort went straight to "adeed, who caught the ball and threw out. Offside against the United relieved, but a foul against Dadds sent the United back and Purvis was forced to kick behind. Corner kick well placed and Dadds cleared and Morris went away, but Laing kicked out. The Club came again, but hands against Sherry cleared. The Club came again, but Blake kicked well up the field and Purvis gave a corner which Raiton cleared. Purvis sent May away the latter passing over to Boysen who centred.

May receiving beat the goalie, but offside had sounded before he took the kick. From the free kick the United went away, and the centre forward beat Groot with a shot that struck the cross-bar and rebounded into the net giving the United the lead. Dadds strained a muscle and for the rest of the game was a passenger. The Club went away from the centre kick, but the United returned and Groot sent behind. The corner kick was well taken and Groot fisted away. Half time arrived with the United leading by one goal to nil.

On resuming Dadds went forward and the Rev. Martin took his place at centre-half. The United started, but the Club receiving went away, and Morris sent in a hard one that McLeod sent round the post. Sherry took the corner kick and Blake cleared and sent the United away, but offside allowed the Club to return where May sent over the top from close range. Club pressed for a time, but had shooting by the forwards saved the United.

From a corner awarded the Club, May missed an easy chance of making the scores equal, by again striking the ball when nicely placed. The Club forced several corners, from one of which May sent in hard at the goalie the ball rebounding from the goalie to Laing, who sent the United away where offside again relieved and Purvis sent Morris away the latter, passing to May who hit the side of the net with his shot.

The Club had most of the play during the remaining part of the game, but their forwards failed miserably in front of goal. From a break away by the United the centre forward sent in a slow ground shot which Groot stopped, but he let the ball fall from his hands, over the goal line. The Club went away from the centre kick and with only five minutes to go pressed the United, but could not score, the whistle sounding the United winners by two goals to nil.

The United deserved their win. Blake and Laing played well.

The Club forwards lost the match through bad shooting. They were far the better team in open play. Dadds being injured early in the game was hard luck for the Club as he is such a hard worker. Groot was not safe in goal.

R.G.A. RESERVES v. CLUB DE REC.

Great inconvenience was caused at Sookurpoo where the ground was occupied by two Naval teams, who refused to leave the ground until nearly three, and both teams had to stand by waiting for time to clear. It is to be hoped that this will not occur again as all League matches, with times and grounds are published weekly in the press.

The R.G.A. were the winners of a hard fought game, Newcombe and Harris scoring for the soldiers. During the game one of the Club's players was ordered off.

The Officers United, St. Joseph's and Kowloon Reserves won their games.

THE GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP. WON BY MR. R. L. D. WODEHOUSE.

The final for the Championship of the Royal Hongkong Golf Club was played yesterday at Fanning. Mr. R. L. D. Wodehouse was the winner, beating Mr. W. D. Kraft, by 5 up and 4 to play, in 38 holes. We congratulate Mr. Wodehouse on his success. He has had a series of stiff matches to play and has earned his victory. Mr. Kraft, too, has met and beaten some formidable opponents, and when one realizes that he was giving his opponent, in the final, 30 years ago cannot help admiring the splendid fight he put up, and feeling a regret that he was not the conqueror, as it is the last Championship he will play in, in Hongkong, as he is shortly retiring. Let us hope that, when his business cares are over, and he can devote more time to the game, we shall hear of his successes in another part of the world.

Golf of a high standard cannot be expected in a final, and this final was no exception to the rule. Both competitors showed signs of nervousness, and consequently played bad shots that they would not have done in an ordinary friendly game. Both played in a three-quarter swing, but in different styles. Mr. Wodehouse is a powerful player and introduces cricketing shots into his game. He is a player who would benefit with experience; he has not the necessary "finish" to his game for a first class player. On the other hand, Mr. Kraft is not a forcing player; he goes for accuracy instead of length.

THE GAME IN DETAIL.

Mr. Wodehouse took the honour and played his drive into the rough. Mr. Kraft following with a straight, but not well hit ball. However, he played a useful second and landed on the green. Mr. Wodehouse played a bad second, but made amends with a good jigger shot, which was a little unfortunate in being just over the green. He failed to lay his fourth dead and Mr. Kraft, holding a nice putt, won the hole.

At the second Mr. Kraft got a nice straight drive and Mr. Wodehouse pulled his into the rough. Failing to make a good recovery he found the bunker guarding the green. Meanwhile, Mr. Kraft played a nice brassy shot short of the green. Mr. Wodehouse got his third out of the bunker and ran up a nice jigger shot to within three yards of the hole. Mr. Kraft was short with his third but ran up a nice putt to within two feet of the hole. Mr. Wodehouse failed to hole his fifth and Mr. Kraft won the hole in 5.

At the short 3rd, Mr. Kraft played a straight shot but was rather short. Mr. Wodehouse played a very bad tee shot, finishing well up the hill side. However, he recovered with a somewhat fluky shot which nearly holed out for a two. Apparently this upset Mr. Kraft and he made a poor approach putt, and failing to hole the third, lost the hole.

From the fourth tee Mr. Wodehouse hit his first good shot, getting well down the fairway. Mr. Kraft replied with a nice straight one and a useful second, which if it had not been slightly pushed out would have found the green. Mr. Wodehouse then duffed two shots, running, and only registered a five against his opponent's four. Mr. Kraft was now 2 up and might very easily have been four, but for Mr. Wodehouse's stroke of luck at the third. He was certainly playing with more confidence and hit a fair drive from the fifth tee. Mr. Wodehouse also hit a good one, slightly hooked. Mr. Kraft played a nice second and in a good direction, but there was not enough behind it to take the ball on to the green. Mr. Wodehouse played a perfect second and was lying four to three.

However, it was not necessary for him to go for it, as Mr. Kraft was short with his third, just missed a long putt for a four, leaving Mr. Wodehouse the winner with a well-played four.

The long sixth was a hole where Mr. Wodehouse's hitting powers should have told, but he pushed his drive out badly, and, having a bad lie for his second, failed to score any advantage, in spite of the fact that Mr. Kraft had a poor drive and did not hit a very good second or even third, but his fourth was well played and finished three yards past the hole. Mr. Wodehouse also played a good fourth and just failed to hole his putt for a five. Mr. Kraft, having previously holed his, was the winner.

The seventh was a walk over for Mr. Wodehouse, who played a good iron shot, with sufficient top spin, to run the ball on to the green, hole high. Mr. Kraft's drive was pulled into the "bog" and was unplayable.

Mr. Wodehouse was cautious on the eighth tee, using his driving iron instead of a driver. Both players got well away from the tee, but Mr. Kraft duffed his second and was short. Mr. Wodehouse played a good second and was a trifle unlucky to finish just short. Mr. Kraft then ran up a very nice third to the hole, but Mr. Wodehouse replied with an equally good one, being only a yard from the hole. Both players failed to hole their putts, and the hole was halved in 5.

The ninth was an uneventful hole. Mr. Kraft playing a steady 8 and Mr. Wodehouse halving it with a somewhat erratic 9, finishing with a long putt.

Both were out in approximately 44, and Mr. Kraft was 1 up.

To the disappointment of the umpire, Mr. T. W. Hill, both players decided not to visit the half way house, and proceeded to the 10th tee.

Mr. Wodehouse hit a nice clean straight shot but, Mr. Kraft got too much under his ball, hitting the top of the hill and running down the far side, but not far enough to be clear of the rough. He played a nice second up the fairway. Mr. Wodehouse risked a brassy and duffed it; he then played an iron, but pushed it out into the rough below the 11th tee. Mr. Kraft hit a good brassy shot, but hooked it into the rough, making a good recovery from a bad lie with his fourth, which reached the green.

Mr. Wodehouse also made a good recovery and put his fourth three yards from the pin. But putting lost Mr. Kraft the hole. Mr. Wodehouse drove a long ball from the 11th tee, but once again hooked it and paid the penalty by reaching the grip guarding the 12th. Mr. Kraft appeared to have lost his confidence, and hit a bad drive, which was lucky to finish in a good position. He failed to take advantage of his luck, and played a bad second, pulling into the rough. Mr. Wodehouse was lying very badly and took two to get out. Mr. Kraft had a bad lie for his third, which he negotiated well, just failing to reach the green. He was short with his fourth and Mr. Wodehouse was a trifle strong with his. Mr. Kraft again putted weakly and lost the hole. Mr. Wodehouse was "up" for the first time and appeared to gain confidence. He played a good tee shot into the wind and was lying nicely on the green. Mr. Kraft's shot was slightly pushed out and found the rough on the edge of the green. He played a good second and was a little unfortunate in striking a mound in front of him which pulled the ball and left him five yards short. He went boldly for a three but missed. Mr. Wodehouse ran up a very good approach putt for a certain three.

Mr. Kraft, having lost three consecutive holes, was now 2 down.

The 13th was halved in five. Both players had good drives, but played poor seconds. Mr. Kraft nearly holed a long putt for a four.

Mr. Wodehouse drove a fine ball from the fourteenth, just short of the left corner of the green. Mr. Kraft's drive was straight, but not lengthy. His run up shot was short, and Mr. Wodehouse failed to take advantage by playing equally short. Mr. Kraft, whose putting had been continually short, made up his mind to give the hole a chance and went well past it. Mr. Wodehouse made no mistake with his third, leaving himself a comfortable four, which he got. As Mr. Kraft missed his return putt, he was now 3 down.

Mr. Wodehouse drove a nice ball from the fifteenth tee with a little hook and just found the rough. Mr. Kraft's drive was straight down the fair and likewise his second. Mr. Wodehouse played a good forced iron to within two yards of the green. Mr. Kraft's third was a perfectly hit ball, but a little too strong, and it finished up the bank at the back of the green. His fourth again was too strong, and he left himself a 6-yard putt for 5.

Mr. Wodehouse having laid his fourth dead, putting it into the bunker. He failed to get out in two and gave up the hole. Mr. Kraft played a perfect tee shot to the third and was only 6 yards short of the hole, whereas Mr. Wodehouse was short of the green. He made a good recovery, however, and laid his ball almost dead. Mr. Kraft's putt was weak and once again he had the misfortune to tip the hole, thereby losing it.

Mr. Wodehouse was somewhat lucky to halve the 23rd in five. He pushed his drive out badly, on to the 17th fairway and topped his second and finished by holing a two yard putt.

Mr. Wodehouse won the 23rd in four. Mr. Kraft just failed to reach the green with his second, and, being a trifle strong with his run up, failed to get a four.

From the 6th tee Mr. Wodehouse hooked his drive into a very bad lie but made a good recovery, and found the green with his third. Mr. Kraft had a good drive and fair second, but was short with his third. He played a good fourth just two yards past the hole, and Mr. Wodehouse ran up his fourth to within the same distance. Both players failed to hole their putts, and a half in 8 resulted.

Mr. Kraft won the 25th with a well played three, being hole high with his tee shot.

The 26th hole was halved in five. Mr. Wodehouse, for once, taking three putts. Going to the 27th Mr. Wodehouse pulled his drive on to the side of the hill, and Mr. Kraft was straight, but short; however, the latter played a good second, Mr. Wodehouse, from an awkward lie, pushing his into the rough, at the bottom of the valley. He made a fine recovery, running well up to the hole. Mr. Kraft played a poor third, finishing on the bank, on the right of the green, from which position he played the shot of the match, holing his putt for a four. Thus at the 27th Mr. Wodehouse was 4 up. The approximate scores for the 9 holes being: Mr. Wodehouse 44, and Mr. Kraft 41.

The 28th was a bad hole, both players pushing their drives very far out, Mr. Kraft eventually winning in 6 to 7.

From the 11th tee both players took the precaution of avoiding the grip by playing straight and the hole was eventually halved in 5.

At the "Gem" Mr. Wodehouse played a perfect iron, landing just short of the pin and stopping dead. Mr. Kraft had a good shot, which failed for distance by about a yard and ran to the bottom of the ravine, from when he failed to recover with his second. Thus Mr. Wodehouse was 4 up.

The 31st hole was won by Mr. Wodehouse in 5 making him dumpy.

The 32nd was halved in four. Mr. Wodehouse making a good recovery from a bad drive and thus winning the match by 5 up and 4 to play.

ROYAL YACHT CLUB.

OPENING OF THE 'SEASON.'

INTERESTING RACES.

Weather conditions for the official opening of the yachting season on Saturday afternoon were inking them on the whole excellent. There might have been a little more wind for the sailing races, but as it was the times were not slow. There was a large attendance of members and their friends. Among the visitors were His Excellency the Governor and Lady Stubbs, Commodore W. Bowden-Smith, and the Hon. Mr. Pollock. His Excellency was accompanied by Capt. McGrath, A.D.C.

The entertainment provided in a full and well chosen programme was finished off nicely by the band of the Wiltshire regiment, which played lively selections throughout the afternoon. There was a holiday spirit about this gathering, so many miles away from the Home country, that was typically British. Throughout the far flung Dominions the same sporting spirit is characteristic of all British meets. It does not matter if the rowing boat is wider than a Gladstone skiff, carries weather boards four inches high, and almost an inch thick, or if the white full limbs of the contestants, tell eloquently of the years out of training since college days. The same keen spirit is manifested, and the excitement at the finish is just as marked as it is at Henley course on regatta day. Newbold described the ethics of British sport in a line in Clifton Chapel: to love the game beyond the prize.

This was the keynote of the contests on Saturday, many thousands of miles from the Thames and its dear associations.

As one would naturally expect, the sailing races were the piece de resistance, occupying seven of the nine events on the programme. The handling of the craft was excellent. The ladies were particularly efficient at the tiller, managing their vessels with the assurance and accuracy born of practice and experience. In almost every event the finish was close, and the contestants were in doubt right up to the last as to who would win. The support was generous and well distributed, and everyone spent a very enjoyable afternoon. Tea was served on the lawn, and the Club House, and the yachts at anchor near by, were bright with flags and pennants.

After the races Lady Stubbs presented the prizes to the winners.

Mr. Frank Smyth, the Commodore, in introducing Lady Stubbs said that the R.H.Y.C. was delighted to have herself and His Excellency with them, and to have the opportunity of welcoming them. The weather had been excellent, and he felt that the visitors had enjoyed themselves. (Applause.) He thought too, that the ladies would be pleased with the small souvenirs of the occasion that had been provided for them.

Lady Stubbs then presented the prizes. When she had concluded Miss Little Arthur presented her with a bouquet.

His Excellency, replying on behalf of Lady Stubbs, said that Lady Stubbs and himself were very glad to have had this opportunity of meeting the members of the Royal Hongkong Yacht Club. Later in the season Lady Stubbs hoped to take part in some of the sailing events. (Applause.) They had spent a most enjoyable afternoon. It was a matter for congratulation to the club that they had chosen the only fine afternoon for days for the official opening of the season. He thanked the committee also, for having provided an extra dragonboat race on short notice for the benefit of his small boy. (Laughter.)

The committee responsible for the arrangements were: Patron—His Excellency Sir R. E. Stubbs, K.C.M.G.; Commodore, Mr. Frank Smyth; Vice-Commodore, Mr. A. R. Lowe.

INTERPORT TENNIS.

THE DOUBLES MATCH.

HONGKONG DEFEATS SHANGHAI.

The interport tennis contest was continued on Saturday when Messrs. Ng Sze Kwong and Wei Wing Lok of Hongkong defeated Messrs. Carnavaro and Tanaka in the remaining doubles event between Hongkong and Shanghai.

Although the match was an eleven-hour decision, due to the uncertainty of weather conditions, a large crowd of tennis enthusiasts was present at the Club de Recreio where the match was played off. Dr. W. J. Wooding umpired. The court was in good condition but the sun proved troublesome to the players. Ng Sze Kwong was off his game somewhat, his strokes not proving very effective, but his failure was made up for by the brilliant play of his partner, Wei Wing Lok. Tanaka was the best player of the quartette, his driving and smashing being exceptionally good. Carnavaro played a steady game all through. Owing to Carnavaro having a bad cramp during the latter stages of the game, the last set had to be stopped for ten minutes before play continued. The match went to five sets.

In the first set Shanghai won after a very keen struggle, 8-6; Hongkong obtained the next, 6-3; and Shanghai repeated their previous performance in the third set, winning 8-0. The fourth and fifth sets were runaway victories for Hongkong, 6-3 and 6-2.

To-day on the Hongkong C.O. courts Ng Sze Kwong meets Tanaka.

M. P. SENTENCED TO IMPRISONMENT: FOR ALLEGED SEDITIOUS SPEECH.

CONSTANTINE CABAL: ACTIVE IN ATHENS.

IRISH REPRISALS:

MR. ASQUITH ATTACKS GOVERNMENT.

LATEST CABLES.
(THROUGH BUTLER'S AGENCY.)

M.P. SENTENCED TO IMPRISONMENT: FOR SEDITIOUS SPEECH.

Mr. Malone, M.P., has been sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the Second Division for having spoken words likely to cause sedition and disaffection at a pro-Bolshevik meeting at Albert Hall.

An amazing story was told at Bow Street Police Court, when Mr. Malone was brought up for trial under regulation 49 of the Defence of the Realm Act, for having, in a speech at Albert Hall, committed an act likely to cause sedition and disaffection among the civilian population.

Mr. Travers Humphrey, for the prosecution, maintained that when the accused's day was raised, he loaded himself with words of sedition, and was found guilty for which Mr. Malone had no license. The police found also pamphlets entitled "A Guide for the brothers of the Red Officers' Corps." The guide contained warning that there would soon be fighting throughout the world. It concluded "We will not lay down arms until the world is ours." Further extracts from this document detailed what steps had been taken to organize street fighting.

General for the defence submitted that the Albert Hall speech was mere rhetoric, and that Mr. Malone meant nothing wrong. He referred to the accused's fine war record. The Magistrate then sentenced Mr. Malone to six months' imprisonment and fined him over a sum of £4,000, or in default six months on the second charge. Notice of appeal was given.

SECOND CHARGE.

London, November 19th.
The second charge against Mr. Malone is that of being a dangerous person.

THE IRISH SITUATION.

MR. ASQUITH'S TRENCHANT CRITICISM.

London, November 19th.
Mr. Asquith, in a speech at the National Liberal Club, delivered a most trenchant attack on the Government in connection with the reprisals in Ireland. He said that the soldiers and the Constabulary in Ireland had been placed in a false position, because they were regarded not as guardians of order, but as agents of repression. He declared that Ireland, for the past six months, had been in a state of civil war. Justice had been done by a policy of blind pitiless and indiscriminate revenge. Recent reports did not justify the assertion of the authorities that things were better. It was impossible to believe official assurances. Cold blooded and deliberate murder had been traced to the uniformed servants of the Crown. He maintained that things had been done in Ireland by the authorities, and at the incitement of the Executive, that were equal to anything in the blackest annals of the lowest despotism of the European world. He would not rest until he had explained to the people of Britain what dishonour was being done to their name. He urged that the motto throughout the whole political activities should be in the words of John Bright, "Be just and fear not."

IRELAND'S TROUBLES.

DISCLOSURES IN REPUBLICAN LETTER.

London, November 19th.
In the House of Commons, Sir Hamar Greenwood read out a remarkable letter which was found amongst the papers belonging to the Chief of the Staff of the Irish Republican Army. The letter dealt with the possibility of spreading typhoid among troops by infected milk about which expert opinion was necessary. It said, in order to see if it could be done, also spreading glanders among horses which could be done by tampering with water. Mr. Devlin, and Mr. MacDonagh, most indignantly declared that the whole thing was a sheer invention and concocted in Dublin Castle, to which Sir Hamar Greenwood replied that the document had been captured during a raid.

WHY PREMIER REFUSED TO SEE DEPUTATION.

In the House of Commons, when asked whether he had refused to receive a deputation of the Irish Peace Conference, which was appointed in response to his invitation, the Prime Minister said that he did not think that at the present time any advantage was to be gained by receiving a deputation, as he was not at all sure if the conference had discovered moderate opinion in Ireland, in accordance with his request to the first deputation. The first step towards peace must be the cessation of the attempt to overthrow the reign of law by murder and assassination and the breaking up of the murder gang.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS. VIEWS ON WORKING OF ASSEMBLY.

Geneva, November 18th.
In the circles representing the opinion of the Dominions the view prevails that on the whole, the work of the Assembly is going well. The Canadian representative that the start is very encouraging as they did not think it possible that the preliminary difficulties would be disposed so quickly. The very good spirit shown is a good augury for the future. Moreover, the system of organisation and procedure adopted seems to be very practical.

The Indians regard the progress made as satisfactory. The point of the greatest interest in the proceedings so far is that British India and the Dominions as individual members of the League of Nations do not act necessarily together, but exercise complete freedom to act and vote in accordance with their own views. The individual character of each British State is specially emphasised.

The South Africans consider that things will now move as the composition of the committee has been settled, and real work will begin. South Africa, naturally, is specially interested in the maintenance of the League. It is determined to do all in its power to see that the League has a fair trial to become a living organisation.

New Zealand's general impression is that, considering all the difficulties, it has done fairly well. The language difficulties in the Assembly are being got over reasonably well, and the machinery has been started which ought to result in good work. It is felt that there will be no delay. It is felt that the committee are rather large. This may hamper discussions. There is every reason for optimism. The League has already shown by Dr. Nansen's report what can be done. In regard to the war still going on, the League is not yet in a position to assert its full authority. It has economic pressure, arbitration, international courts of justice and publicity, all of whom will make a great impression. One means, that of the use of force by the League, is set forth in the Covenant, but does not appear on the agenda. It is perhaps one of the most difficult problems.

The Australians think that, although full allowance must be made for the necessary shaking down, a process common to all assemblies, it has been intensified by the language difficulty. In this case, disapprovements were felt as the Assembly was dealing in generalities and platitudes rather than coming into actual contact with problems awaiting solution. None of the really big questions have yet been touched, references to them being entirely vague and general, but now that the different sections of work have been allotted to committees, it is hoped that matters will improve.

ATTITUDE OF AMERICA.
Washington, November 18th.
It is stated that the United States will not follow the lead of Britain if the latter recognises the Soviet Government, even if only to the extent of trading. Officials explain that the Government believes that Bolshevism is a menace to the stability of the world, and that the Russians themselves are being held in subjection against their will by the Bolsheviks.

GERMANY'S ADMISSION INTO THE LEAGUE.

London, November 18th.
Houtor's correspondent at Geneva states that there is considerable canvassing going on behind the scenes in regard to Germany's admission to the League. A two-thirds majority is necessary for the sanction of new admissions. That in this case such a majority will be forthcoming is improbable, though an actual majority is believed to be certain. Those besides the Scandinavian group who favour the entry of Germany are, South Africa, Switzerland, Italy, Spain and most of the South American members of the League. The United States, it is possible that Britain will join them and it is believed that Japan and China will follow Britain's lead. The French group, which is undoubtedly very strong in the League, vigorously opposes the proposal and is supported by Belgium, Portugal, Poland, Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and Czechoslovakia.

The ballot for the sixth vice-president resulted in Senator Octavio (Brazil) being elected by 19 votes, while Lord Robert Cecil and Mr. Bratting received 8 each.

Nansen, who was a tribute to the remarkable speech of Lord Robert Cecil, reported that 130,000 prisoners of war had been repatriated at a cost of £270,000, while 10,000 awaited repatriation.

TRADE WITH RUSSIA. CABINET APPROVES OF DRAFT OF AGREEMENT.

London, November 18th.
In the House of Commons, Mr. Lloyd George stated that the Cabinet had decided to approve the draft of the agreement for carrying out the July arrangements in regard to trade with Russia. The draft will be ready for submission to the Soviet in a few days. The agreement would not be entered into until the Soviet carried out the undertaking concerning prisoners.

FEELING IN BRITAIN.

London, November 18th.
The Prime Minister's announcement regarding the impending resumption of trade with Russia has been received with mingled feelings. The conclusion of an agreement on this subject is looked upon as inevitably leading to the political recognition which the Soviet Government, admittedly weak, and against which public feeling is still strong. Apart from this, however, there is a general objection to entering into any relations with the Bolshevik regime, but there is a disposition to suspend judgment regarding the trading arrangements until the terms are published. There is a widespread feeling that a sine qua non of any agreement must be that the Russians recognise their liability for loans raised in Great Britain and France, before the which amount to half a billion sterling. These loans were for municipal, national, and railway purposes. This sum is independent of half a billion lent by Britain to Russia for war material, but regarding which expectations of recovery are not sanguine. An impression rules that the new agreement will provide a system of credits to facilitate the export of goods to Russia, and to secure supplies. As to goods from Russia, despite the alluring reports of the accumulated stocks awaiting export, doubt is expressed as to whether anything of a substantial character exists beyond large holdings of gold, all of which is stolen gold. Some of this stock is adulterated.

ATTITUDE OF AMERICA.

WASHINGTON, November 18th.

It is stated that the United States will not follow the lead of Britain if the latter recognises the Soviet Government, even if only to the extent of trading. Dezli, November 18th.

Colonel Foulkes, of the Indian Medical Service, was shot dead in his bungalow on November 16th by a number of tribesmen. His wife was badly wounded and dragged away by the tribesmen but was subsequently released.

FALL OF FREIGHT RATES. PROSPECT OF LAYING UP TONNAGE.

London, November 18th.
Freights continue to fall. The decline in the past three months has averaged over 50 per cent. Signs of the downward move have not ended. An example of the drop is afforded by the rate of transport of coal from the United States to France, which was $25 at the end of May and is now $9. The cheapening of the rates is due to the quicker recovery of the world's merchant shipping from the influence of the war than its productive machinery. Consequently, more tonnage is available than goods for transport.

The downward position is likely to continue, at least temporarily, owing to 7,000,000 tons of shipping now being completed in British and foreign yards in the course of 1921, but the limit will be reached when shipowners find it necessary to lay up tonnage until the economic recovery of Europe provides more goods for transport.

STUDENT STRIKERS.

BOARD OF VISITORS' ULTIMATUM.

ANNAPOLIS, November 18th.

Refusing to accept the compromise offered by the Governors in regard to "hazing" the students at St. John's College walked out in a body.

The Maryland Board of Visitors has sent an ultimatum to the student strikers threatening dismissal, including scholarship holders, unless they return by November 22nd. Some have already returned.

A MORE POWERFUL POISON GAS.

AND ITS ANTIDOTE.

New York, November 18th.

General Fries, of the United States Chemical Warfare Service, announces the discovery of a more powerful poison-gas than any used in the late war; also a gas-mask able to withstand it.

He further states that poison-gases can be solidified so that each soldier can carry a small canister of them.

U.S. SHIPPING BOARD.

SCANDAL.

WHERE DID THE MONEY GO?

New York, November 18th.

An amazing revelation has resulted from the Congressional Committee's enquiry into the Shipping Board scandal.

As an example it is stated that in August, 1919, no record existed showing how $2,500,000,000 then expended had been disbursed.

BOMBAY MILL STRIKE.

A message from Bombay states that 5,000 millhands at Sassoon mill, struck owing to the refusal of their demands for gifts of cloth for the festival of Diwali.

Bombay, November 18th.

AUSTRALIA-LONDON EXCHANGE.

SUGGESTION BY FEDERATION OF BRITISH INDUSTRIES.

London, November 19th.

The Federation of British Industries has sent a letter to the Hon. Andrew Fisher, High Commissioner for Australia, regarding the serious London-Australia exchange position, which is seriously endangering the trade between Britain and Australia. The letter declares that the Australian exchange banks, not possessing the necessary resources, are unable at present to purchase documentary bills on Australia, because so far the British Government was the sole purchaser of the staple Australian exports, and the sums disbursed on account of these purchases were made available to the exchange banks through the Commonwealth Government. The cessation of purchases has radically altered the situation, and henceforward the money expended by Britain on the purchase of Australian products will be available in the ordinary course of commerce for the financing of the export of British goods to Australia. Such finance will not be available until the maturity of drafts upon London, in respect of free shipments of Australian products. Consequently for three or four months the Australian banks will not have funds with which to finance their export trade from Britain. Therefore, the Federation suggests that the remedy lies in the Commonwealth removing the prohibition on the export of gold from Australia to Britain, and by placing at the disposal of Australian banks in London the considerable sums which the Commonwealth has at its disposal in Britain, and which it at present withholds from the normal function of financing trade.

ITALIAN DEPUTY'S ARREST.

FINDING OF COMMISSION OF INQUIRY.

ROME, November 19th.

The commission-inquiring into the incidents arising out of Senator Buccos' arrest has reported that his conduct has demonstrated his evident unfitness for the work entrusted to him by a popular organization, and, significantly adds that when Senator Buccos recently visited Trieste he was accompanied by a young woman whom he introduced everywhere as a Hungarian Communist, persecuted by Morhiv. Consequently, the Socialist of Trieste welcomed her with fery and presents. She was really an Italian and the mistress of Senator Buccos.

FAR EASTERN CABLE NEWS.

BRITISH ENTERPRISE IN CHINA.

MR. H. H. FOX ON HIS TOUR OF HOME INDUSTRIAL CENTRES.

(THROUGH BUTLER'S AGENCY.)

London, November 20th.

The Financial Times publishes an interview with Mr. H. H. Fox, C.M.G., the British Commercial Attaché in China, following upon his industrial tour of Great Britain. Mr. Fox stated that he was satisfied at the increased attention which was at the present time being paid to China, although, he emphasized that heavy expenses and delays through the labour unrest seriously handicapped British enterprise in China, and until home conditions were more settled our exports to the Far East were bound to suffer.

Referring to America's advantage, due to the training of Chinese students in the United States, who returned to China favouring American productions, Mr. Fox said that a similar British scheme was on foot.

He agreed with Sir Charles Addis in regard to the international aspect of the Chinese Consortium, by which co-operation instead of competition would exclude multi-national complications. He emphasized the need for a more stable government in China under which China would achieve industrial development. He declared that we must not under-estimate the recuperative powers of Germany who was struggling to recapture her trade with China, while as regards the great progress of Japan, Mr. Fox stated that Japan was expected to observe the co-operative spirit of the Consortium.

Twenty-eight men are missing, including the Captain, Mr. O. Jorgensen, a Norwegian, and the Chief Officer, Mr. Buchanan, a Scot.

The announcement locally caused a raid on the agent's office by a howling mob of relatives of the supposed victims clamouring for compensation. The police quelled the disturbance. Arbitration has been promised.

GERMANY'S PROTEST AGAINST ASSIGNMENT OF MANDATES.

London, November 19th.

Germany has officially protested to the Assembly of the League of Nations against the methods of distributing mandates declaring that under the Treaty of Versailles, it is illegal for the Entente Powers to distribute mandates amongst themselves. It is regarded as significant that the protest has been addressed to the assembly, and not the Council of the League.

The protest expresses the opinion that the ultimate destiny of the German colonies is not a matter to be settled by three who are temporarily controlling the assembly of the League which not only controls, but originated the mandates. The protest is signed by Herr von Simons.

How Many Buyers Can Judge Value?

NEARLY every man has his visions of finding the ideal motor car. He anticipates the true mastery of the roads at last, and the prestige of being right at every point of his motoring.

For the man who wants the Packard qualities in his motoring, only the Packard Car will do. While if his taste and sense of values are not up to the Packard, some other car will do.

The Packard Twin-Six really is as true and fine as anyone ever assumed any car to be.

It occupies, alone and sufficient, the place it has made for itself. It stands aloof equally from the car that obviously can be no better than it looks, and from the car that strives to look better than it is.

The dominant place of the Packard is not at all of chance. For twenty-one years the Packard has been delivering intrinsic value—the soundest value a motor car has ever given.

During the War, inspecting officers spoke of the Packard plant as a manufacturing marvel. The only automobile plant in the world to produce high-grade cars on a quantity basis.

Why this tremendous plant investment? Simply to produce a car of Packard grade at a price within reason. If built by piecemeal methods the Packard would be the highest priced car in the world.

OUR LONDON LETTER

MURDERS AND REPRISALS IN IRELAND.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT]

LONDON, OCTOBER 14th.

REPRISALS IN IRELAND.

I believe that outside certain newspaper circles and the ranks of a few politicians British public opinion is quite content to leave the question of reprisals in Ireland to the Irish Executive. The "Westminster Gazette" tells its readers that the people of this country are being roused by the tales of reprisals; but one looks in vain for the least atom of evidence that this is the case.

The police in Ireland—not only the R.I.C., but the "black and tans" as the auxiliary police are called—have been killed singly and in batches for many months under circumstances of the most cold-blooded determination, and although it is known who are the perpetrators of these crimes it is futile to bring the miscreants to justice because it is impossible to obtain the necessary evidence to secure conviction in the Courts. This is not to say that the Irish people are in league with Sinn Féin; it means that there are cowards and silent through fear—the victims of a Reign of Terror.

EXTREME MEASURES.

Now, when this is the state of affairs in Ireland what is a disciplined force like the police to do? They should not, of course, resort to lynch law. But actually, since the machinery of constitutional law and justice has broken down, it is the only course. The police, as I have said, know who are their enemies. Indeed, in the early days of the murder campaign, before the word "reprisals" was heard of, policemen were jeered in public by ruffians who had murdered their comrades a night or two before. It is not surprising, therefore, that in the circumstances, being human, the police have occasionally taken the law into their own hands and exacted an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.

Speaking in Wales this week Mr. Lloyd George did not shrink from the fact that it is true, but the case quite like this, but it is the true explanation—even if it is not a legal justification of reprisals. I am convinced that if English politicians like Mr. Asquith and their supporters in the Press would leave the Irish Executive alone, the armed conspiracy which is terrorising Ireland would be smashed within a few months.

It is sheer cant to denounce the "Black and Tans" who execute assassins by the time-honoured method of putting them against a wall in front of a firing party, who not only word of regret is forthcoming in respect of policemen who are murdered in the discharge of their duty to the Crown.

THE PRINCE COMES HOME.

The Uncommercial Traveller of the Empire returned this week, and the Old Firm gave him a rousing welcome home. There are no two opinions about the popularity of the Prince of Wales. Evidence of the place he holds in the public mind was forthcoming in the cheering crowds that lined the route from Victoria Station to Buckingham Palace. I have seen processional routes in London crowded before now, but never have I seen one so densely packed.

During his long absence the Prince has not lost any of his boyish looks. He is tanned, and he appears to have grown stronger. There is also still the same delighted youth that lights up his face, and gives unbounded pleasure wherever he goes. The Prince's message to Britain after his travels abroad is that if the Empire only pulls together its future is absolutely secure.

WOMEN AND THE UNIVERSITIES.

This week great interest is being taken in the proceedings at Oxford, when, for the first time in the history of the ancient seat of learning, degrees have been conferred upon women.

Among others the degree of Master of Art is conferred upon Miss Gwyneth Marjory Rhombay, who is the only woman to have been placed in the first-class honours School of Law at the University. She is also a notable person because she was the first woman whose application for membership of the Inns of Court as a student for the Bar was accepted by Lincoln's Inn, in December 1919. Furthermore, she was the plaintiff in an action against the Law Society which in 1913 refused to admit the right of women to enter the profession.

It is evident that a great deal of water has run swiftly under the bridge since 1913—the year before the Great War, which has changed the outlook on life for women, as for men, in countless directions.

OPPOSITION AT CAMBRIDGE.

At Cambridge a determined attempt is being made to obtain for women students admission to membership of the degrees of the University, who also same terms as men. There is opposition to the proposal in very influential quarters. The argument used against the women is that if they are really keen for academic distinction they should set up their own University.

But the women who desire learning, besides that there is no difference in aim between the interests of the sexes. After 51 years' work at Newham and Girton in close connection with the University they claim the full privileges enjoyed by men.

I dare say that as barriers were broken down at Oxford they will also give way before the Daughters of Eve at Cambridge. But it will be no easy task for the women. Undergraduates are not easily hostile to any change. They feel that women will thrust themselves into the common life of the colleges on the same footing as men—and that, of course, is presumption!

THOSE EXCESS PROFITS.

The decline in revenue from Excess Profits Duty is significant. Leaders of industry, and in fact the whole business world, regard the announcement with a dawning pleasure. They are able to point to the fact that the Chancellor of the Exchequer has exclaimed: "We told you so!" Mr. Chamberlain persisted in this tax against all protest and argument. He imagined that the trade boom would last indefinitely. A further material point is that since the tax was imposed there has been a decrease in the number of British companies registered. That would not matter much if the capital of those registering were invested here; but what has actually happened is that many nominally British companies have been registered abroad. The Corporation tax is responsible for this—E. R.
